

Terms & Conditions

Last Updated: 10 August 2026

These Terms and Conditions apply to the use of the Drinks website and all services provided through it. By accessing, browsing, registering for an account, or purchasing products through the website, users agree to follow these Terms and Conditions.

Users who do not agree with these Terms and Conditions should stop using the website.

1. Use of the Website

The Drinks website is provided for personal, lawful, and non-commercial use unless otherwise approved by Drinks.

Users may browse products, create an account, place orders, submit reviews, contact the company, and use other features made available through the website.

Users must not use the website for fraudulent, harmful, illegal, or unauthorised activities. Users must also not attempt to damage, disable, overload, interfere with, or gain unauthorised access to the website, its servers, databases, accounts, or security systems.

The website must not be used to distribute harmful software, viruses, misleading information, offensive material, or content that violates the rights of others.

Drinks reserves the right to restrict, suspend, or terminate access to users who misuse the website or violate these Terms and Conditions.

2. User Accounts

Some website features may require users to create an account. Users must provide accurate, complete, and current information during registration.

Each account should only be used by the person who created it unless permission has been provided by Drinks.

Users are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of their password, PIN, and login information. Any activity performed through an account may be treated as activity authorised by the account holder.

Users must immediately inform Drinks if they believe their account has been accessed without permission.

Drinks may suspend or close accounts that contain false information, are involved in suspicious activity, or violate website policies.

Users may request that their account be closed. Certain account information may still be retained where required for order records, legal compliance, fraud prevention, or business administration.

3. Product Information

Drinks aims to provide accurate descriptions, images, prices, ingredients, sizes, and availability information for products displayed on the website.

However, product information may occasionally contain errors, incomplete details, or outdated information. Product packaging, colours, designs, and appearances may also vary slightly from the images shown on the website.

Drinks reserves the right to correct errors, update product information, change prices, and modify product availability without prior notice.

The display of a product on the website does not guarantee that the product will always be available for purchase.

Users who have allergies, dietary restrictions, or specific health concerns should review the product label and official packaging before consuming any beverage. Website descriptions should not replace professional medical or dietary advice.

4. Orders

When a user places an order, they are making a request to purchase the selected products.

An order is not considered fully accepted until it has been confirmed by Drinks. An automatic confirmation message may only confirm that the order request has been received.

Drinks may reject, cancel, or limit an order where a product is unavailable, payment cannot be verified, incorrect information has been provided, suspicious activity is detected, or an error has occurred in the listed price or product description.

Users must provide accurate delivery, contact, and payment information. Drinks will not be responsible for delays or unsuccessful deliveries caused by incorrect information provided by the user.

Users should review their order carefully before confirming it. Changes may not be possible once the order has been processed.

5. Prices and Payment

All prices displayed on the website are presented in the stated currency. Prices may change at any time without prior notice.

The final price may include delivery fees, service charges, taxes, or other applicable costs. These amounts should be shown before the user confirms payment.

Users must use a valid and authorised payment method. By submitting payment information, the user confirms that they have permission to use the selected payment method.

Payments may be processed by third-party payment providers. Drinks is not responsible for delays or failures caused by the payment provider, bank, card issuer, or internet connection.

If a pricing error is discovered after an order has been placed, Drinks may contact the customer to confirm the corrected price or cancel the order.

6. Delivery

Delivery times shown on the website are estimates and may not be guaranteed.

Delivery may be affected by product availability, traffic, weather conditions, public holidays, location, courier delays, technical problems, or other circumstances outside the control of Drinks.

Users must ensure that someone is available to receive the order where necessary. Additional charges may apply if repeated delivery attempts are required due to the absence of the customer.

Responsibility for the products may transfer to the customer once the order has been delivered to the stated address.

Users should inspect the order after delivery and contact Drinks as soon as possible if products are missing, damaged, incorrect, or unsuitable for consumption.

7. Cancellations, Returns, and Refunds

Order cancellations may only be accepted before the order has been processed or prepared for delivery.

Because beverages may be perishable or consumable products, returns may not be accepted for change-of-mind requests after delivery.

A refund or replacement may be considered where a product is damaged, expired, incorrect, missing, or otherwise defective at the time of delivery.

Customers may be required to provide proof of purchase, photographs, order details, or other supporting information before a refund or replacement is approved.

Approved refunds may be returned through the original payment method. Processing times may depend on the bank or payment provider.

Drinks reserves the right to reject refund requests that are incomplete, submitted after an unreasonable delay, or involve products that have been consumed, modified, or damaged after delivery.

8. Promotions and Discount Codes

Drinks may offer promotional codes, discounts, rewards, competitions, or limited-time offers.

Promotions may be subject to additional rules, eligibility requirements, minimum spending amounts, expiry dates, product limitations, or usage restrictions.

Unless otherwise stated, promotional codes cannot be exchanged for cash, transferred to another account, combined with other offers, or used after their expiry date.

Drinks may cancel or modify a promotion where fraud, misuse, technical errors, or unexpected circumstances occur.

Users must not create multiple accounts or provide false information to obtain promotional benefits unfairly.

9. Reviews and User Content

Users may be allowed to submit product ratings, reviews, comments, feedback, or other content.

Submitted content must be honest, relevant, respectful, and based on the user's genuine experience. Users must not submit false reviews, offensive language, private information, advertisements, spam, copyrighted material, or content that harms another person's rights.

Drinks may review, remove, edit, reject, or restrict user-generated content that violates these Terms and Conditions.

By submitting content, the user gives Drinks permission to display, reproduce, and use that content for website, promotional, or service improvement purposes.

Users remain responsible for the content they submit and should avoid including sensitive personal information in public reviews.

10. Intellectual Property

The Drinks website and its contents may include text, graphics, logos, icons, images, videos, product descriptions, website designs, layouts, software, and other materials.

These materials are owned by or licensed to Drinks and may be protected by copyright, trademark, and other intellectual property laws.

Users may view and use the website for personal purposes. They may not copy, reproduce, modify, distribute, sell, publish, or commercially use website content without written permission.

The Drinks name, logo, brand elements, and product designs must not be used in a way that may confuse customers or falsely suggest a partnership or endorsement.

11. Third-Party Services and Links

The website may include links to third-party websites or use services provided by external companies.

Drinks does not control third-party websites and is not responsible for their content, security, availability, privacy practices, products, or services.

Users access third-party services at their own risk and should review the terms and policies of those providers.

Drinks will not be responsible for losses or problems caused by third-party websites, payment providers, delivery services, or external platforms unless required by law.

12. Website Availability

Drinks aims to keep the website available and functioning correctly. However, uninterrupted access cannot be guaranteed.

The website may be temporarily unavailable due to maintenance, updates, technical problems, security issues, server failures, or circumstances outside our control.

Drinks may modify, suspend, remove, or discontinue any website feature without prior notice.

Users are responsible for using a compatible device, browser, and internet connection when accessing the website.

13. Limitation of Liability

To the extent permitted by law, Drinks will not be responsible for indirect, unexpected, or consequential losses resulting from the use or inability to use the website.

This may include loss of data, loss of opportunity, loss of profits, device problems, service interruptions, or reliance on inaccurate website information.

Drinks will not be responsible for problems caused by user error, unauthorised account access, incorrect information provided by the user, third-party services, or circumstances beyond reasonable control.

Nothing in these Terms and Conditions is intended to remove rights that cannot legally be excluded.

14. Indemnification

Users agree to take responsibility for losses, claims, expenses, or damages caused by their misuse of the website, violation of these Terms and Conditions, infringement of another person's rights, or submission of unlawful content.

This does not apply where the loss was directly caused by the negligence or unlawful actions of Drinks.

15. Termination of Access

Drinks may suspend, restrict, or terminate a user's access to the website where the user violates these Terms and Conditions, engages in fraudulent activity, misuses website services, or creates security risks.

Termination may occur without prior notice where immediate action is reasonably necessary.

After termination, users must stop using the affected account or service. Terms relating to intellectual property, liability, payments, and legal obligations may continue to apply.

16. Changes to These Terms

Drinks may update these Terms and Conditions to reflect changes to website features, services, business practices, or legal requirements.

Updated terms may be published on the website with a revised "Last Updated" date.

Users should review the Terms and Conditions regularly. Continued use of the website after changes have been published means that the user accepts the updated terms.

17. Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the applicable laws of Malaysia.

Disputes relating to the website, products, services, or these Terms and Conditions should first be discussed with Drinks in an effort to reach a reasonable solution.

Where a dispute cannot be resolved informally, it may be referred to the appropriate courts or authorities in Malaysia, subject to applicable law.

18. Contact Information

Questions regarding these Terms and Conditions may be submitted to the Drinks support team.
